

Digital Franklin Park

Franklin Park, Illinois

The Digital Franklin Park Campus is a 40-acre masterplanned campus in the Chicago suburb of Franklin Park. It consists of three buildings, totaling over 500,000 square feet of space, 40MW of power, and a wide array of scalable offerings and flexible design options supporting single cabinet to multimewatt deployments. Digital Franklin Park is a secure and interconnected data center campus in close proximity to network, cloud, and content ecosystems available within the metro. ServiceFabric™ also offers the ability to connect to any or all major cloud providers directly and economically.

The Digital Franklin Park Campus is a little over 5 miles from O'Hare International Airport. In addition to benefitting from its close proximity to multiple fiber providers and utility substations, the campus property has direct connectivity to our 350 Cermak Road and 600 South Federal Street facilities in Chicago.
